Course Guidelines and Policies

Attendance/Participation

Regular class attendance is essential to proper academic progress. At Keiser University, satisfactory attendance is considered to be a vital part of each student's performance. Initial student attendance in courses will be documented through the student's completion of the certification, pre-test, introduction posting and the week one initial discussion posting, which is required to be completed within the first four days of the course. Failure to post during the first four days of the course may result in administrative withdrawal from the course. Students are expected to log into the course a minimum of three (3) days per week and to communicate directly with the course instructor regarding any circumstance that may result in their absence. Course participation is met through required discussion postings and submission of assignments by required due dates. Participation is a basic requirement for an effective learning community. Students' participation will be determined by the faculty and reflected in the grading of the discussions and assignments.

Missed Quizzes/Exams

Makeup quizzes/exams may only be allowed with pre-approval of the instructor or with an acceptable, documented reason. Acceptable reasons for makeup exams include severe illness, family emergency or other unavoidable events. It is expected that students attending an online course have sufficient Internet service and technology to complete online quizzes/exams without interruptions. Any technical difficulties while taking a quiz or exam requires contacting the HELP DESK via telephone immediately for assistance and obtaining a ticket number. You must then contact your instructor with the ticket number in a timely manner. Quizzes/Exams will not be considered for reset unless a ticket number is presented to your instructor and is not guaranteed. Any technical difficulties will be evaluated by faculty for final determination.

Certification/Plagiarism Software

Students are required to electronically sign the certification in their classrooms within the first three (3) days of class. The certification is an acknowledgement of expectations for academic honesty and plagiarism for coursework. The University also uses plagiarism detection software for papers and other writings to ensure the integrity of a student's written work.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to maintain the highest standards of academic conduct, professional honesty, and personal integrity. Plagiarism, cheating and other misconduct are serious violations and will not be tolerated, and may result in academic penalties, including suspension or dismissal. Plagiarism is the deliberate or unintentional use of another's words or ideas without proper citation for which the student claims authorship. It is a policy of Keiser University that students assume responsibility for maintaining honesty in all work submitted for credit and in any other work designated by an instructor of a course. Students may not submit the same work completed for one course in any other course, earning credit for the same work each time.

Civility/Professionalism

This class is a community of learners, which means we will depend upon each other for support and information. In order to learn, we must be open to the views of people different than ourselves. Please honor the uniqueness of your classmates and appreciate the opportunity we have to learn from one another. Please respect each other's opinions and refrain from personal attacks or demeaning comments of any kind.

It is of the utmost importance to communicate with courtesy and professionalism. Professional courtesy includes respecting other's opinions, being courteous and respectful, and working together in the spirit of cooperation.
